

I am opposed to any further media consolidation. We should retain the present ownership rules. We want a exposure to a variety of viewpoints, news, music, information. This country is founded on a free press, and allowing a few to own the many will destroy the credibility of the media. It also looks like the large media corporations have purchased your votes. Don't do it.